Selectmen Give Initial Approval to Qualification Policy for Chief's Position

By Terry Barnicle
and Alec Belisle

SUTTON - All Selectmen were present at the June 28 meeting.

Liquor License

Town Administrator Dexter Blois suggested that it would be best for all concerned if the liquor license of Carol Azzarone, doing business as J.J.'s, was cancelled. Jack Virgilio was seeking a transfer of the license to a restaurant which will be included in his proposed and approved Suttongate Mall but will now apply for a new license.

Virgilio told the board that officials of the Massachusetts Alcohol Beverage Control Commission said that the 1974 transfer of the liquor license from the Damato family, doing business as Pete's, to the Azzarone family, doing business as J.J.'s, was invalid.

Selectman Wally Johnson agreed that a new license should be issued and offered a motion to cancel the old license. The motion passed unanimously.

Virgilio asked the board to express their feelings about his application so that he can begin finalizing arrangements with a restaurateur who is about to commit to the site. Virgilio said the interested party is prepared to spend $600,000 to outfit and decorate the restaurant but needs some type of confirmation that the establishment will have a full liquor license.

The board expressed their support for Virgilio's application.

Annual Appointments

The board made a number of appointments and reappointments to a variety of town boards and committees. During the process, Selectwoman Mary K. Connor suggested a meeting of the selectmen and the Zoning Board of Appeals. Connor said she was dissatisfied with the ZBA's procedures and wanted to discuss her concerns with them. Chairman Rick LaBonte agreed with Connor, but added that he had heard that changes for the better have been made by the ZBA. The selectmen voted unanimously to meet with the ZBA in the near future.

Blois reported that many people in areas not represented on the Cable TV Commission have expressed interest in serving on that board. Selectman Mike Chizy remarked, "It's hard to get people to serve on these boards; let's go after those interested."

Policy for Position of Police Chief

The board then reviewed a proposed policy for the position of Police Chief for the Town of Sutton. LaBonte began the discussion by soliciting comments from his colleagues. Selectman Carl Licopoli said that he wanted to give the present police personnel the opportunity to apply for the position. "The main gist of what I'm saying is, we don't want to exclude anyone from the present force; I'd like to promote from within," he said.

In response to a question from LaBonte, Licopoli said that he wanted to "give the opportunity to everyone in the department. They have to have the opportunity," he said. "What you have here for right now, if we were to adopt this now, no one in the department would have a chance. I want to make this a little more open. I'm not restricting it to only our people."

Selectman Wally Johnson then commented, "I strongly feel that the appointment should come from within the department for the simple reason, in all fairness, I think those fellows should be given a chance to prove their salt. There are people there who are capable of being chief," he said. "I am real, real set on hoping that we will pick a chief from within the department. If we put up a list of qualifications and invite others to apply for the job, I don't think the men in our department have a fair shot at it."

Johnson continued, "I want to keep the appointment within the department and give somebody a chance to do it. If it doesn't prove out, changes can be made, but I firmly believe there are gentlemen there that have done this town a service for nineteen years and they should be given a chance to be rewarded, and the only way they're going to get it is to be given the chance to fill the position."

Chizy said that he, too, would like to see someone from within the department qualify for the position, "but," he added, "at one time or

The Over… Hill Gang?

MILLBURY - The Millbury Parks Department sponsored its 13th Annual Road Race on July 4. Among the runners passing by the Chronicle office were Gary Nelson (top) and Police Chief Ron Stokowski. We calculated they were somewhere around the bottom third of the pack (behind most of the women and small children - many of whom were walking!).

The Chronicle has learned (from a very reliable source with the initials F.G.) that Nelson recently competed in a triathlon on the Cape. Could it really be true that he finished first in the swimming event, crawling up the beach amid loud cheers from the waiting crowd? The next time you see Gary, ask him to tell you all about it!

Thank You...

Millbury Youth Center Grand Opening

I'd like to take the opportunity to thank all the individual residents, organizations and local businesses who helped to make the opening successful. Many services and equipment needs were provided through their generous donations.

The center was open Friday and Saturday, from 6-11 p.m., with over 75 youths attending. Most important to observe was the youth enjoying themselves by playing basketball, using weight lifting equipment, dancing and playing video games. After 2 years of planning, the center has become a reality and appears to be a much needed service.

Linda M. Johnson, Director
Millbury Youth Center

Thank You...

We would like to thank everyone for the many cards, prayers, memorial contributions and expressions of sympathy in our loss.

We would also like to thank the Millbury Police Department for their help and final tributes.

Millbury Selectmen's Meeting Digest

Contract Discussions Highlight Selectmen's Meeting

By Edward J. Cooney

MILLBURY - Before the scheduled meeting posted for 7:00 p.m., the Millbury Board of Selectmen and members of the Historical Society and Historical Commission met at 6:30 p.m. to dedicate the conference room to Thomas Blanchard. Blanchard, a former Millbury resident, inventor, and holder of several patents, was born June 24, 1888 in Sutton. Examples of Blanchard's accomplishments are memorialized in the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C.

Executive Session

Following the dedication, the board voted to go into Executive Session. Earl Chase, Administrative Assistant, said the session was called because of an unexpected emergency that had arisen. Under the Open Meeting Law, a government body may enter into executive session on an emergency basis after first convening in Open Session. An "emergency situation" is defined as a sudden, generally unexpected occurrence or set of circumstances demanding immediate action. According to Chase, the emergency nature of the session dealt with information relating to collective bargaining, contract negotiations, and agreements.

Police Officer Candidate

At 7:20, the board returned to open session. Present was Robert Robinson, a candidate for the police officer position left vacant by the recent resignation of Paul D'Auteuil. Robinson gave a brief summary of his background, explaining that he was a former Auburn Police Officer and left the department to work for Federal Express and to pursue an MBA, which he has since acquired.

Cristo asked why he chose to return to police work. Robinson replied that there is something about police work that gets into your blood. He said he missed the work and also felt it would give him more time to spend with his family.

Gauthier asked if Robinson would be required to attend the police academy. Stokowski replied that he would since he missed the cut off date by one year.

Lachance moved to make the appointment effective tonight, which was seconded by Donnelly.

Lachance read from several vouchers in his hands for June 18 through June 24, which showed a sum of $2600 in overtime pay. He noted one officer received $403 and another $585. "This necessitates the hiring of another police officer," Lachance said. "It will help to eliminate overtime expenditures. It's up to the Chief and the board to see that overtime is reduced."

Stokowski recommended that the appointment be contingent on Civil Service approval, police academy training, and salary adjustments based upon Robinson's experience and education.

The board unanimously approved Robinson's appointment effective tonight. On a 5-0 vote, the board moved to table the salary issue and refer the matter to the personnel board.

Dog Complaint

At 7:45, Cristo recognized Leslie Lane resident Sylvio Bourdeau who was present to speak to a complaint about a dog called "Black Jack." Bourdeau alleged that the dog killed his cat. He also said that the dog is owned by a Mr. Thomas on Woodland Street and was not licensed until the day after his cat was killed.

A neighbor of Bourdeau's, Mr. Charron, spoke of an incident when the same dog smashed a panel on the door of his house. Charron said Thomas paid for the repairs when he reported the incident to him. Charron also expressed concern for his grandchildren who play in the yard, and said that he has not seen the dog since the Bourdeau's cat was killed.

Cristo explained that the usual route for dog complaints is to issue a complaint, after which the board holds a public hearing to hear both sides of the story.

Bourdeau said that Dog Officer George Royal told him that the dog had been arrested but was picked up after all fines were paid. "I questioned him further and he claimed the dog was licensed. He never told us about a hearing," Bourdeau said.

Cristo asked Royal to enlighten the board. Royal said that Bourdeau could file for a hearing. He also said that he had picked up the cat and had to put it to sleep. "I arrested it (the dog) last year. I had no printout of licensed dogs until today," Royal said.

Bourdeau said that, in researching records, he came upon the fact that of 1100 dogs in Millbury, only 700 are licensed. Cristo said a new ticketing procedure was being developed and was awaiting approval from the Chief Justice of the Superior Court.

Bourdeau replied, "Penalties need to be reviewed; they are too lenient." Bourdeau said he would pursue the matter. He also suggested that each person licensing a dog be given the leash law as many protest they are not aware of the law. Bourdeau said he was not blaming the dog. "It's what the owners teach them; that's the problem."

Contracts

At 8:00 p.m., the board met with members of the Millbury Police Department negotiating team, Lincoln Barton, Richard O'Brien, and Richard Handfield, to sign the new contract. Cristo explained that language problems had arisen in a couple of areas. He suggested that the economic area could be effected if signed tonight, but that the problem areas would require further discussions and agreements on language changes.

Barton said that there had been good meetings over the recent negotiations and noted that it was a package deal. "If any more changes are to be made," he said, "we will open up again the whole contract."

Cristo explained that all contracts are reviewed by labor counsel for language and form before the board signs off. "We can ratify the contract except for those items which can be discussed with the personnel board." Cristo said.

Barton replied, "We don't want to do that."

Cristo said, "There is a good, fair wage increase. We may have to wait two weeks."

Barton responded, "We don't need that time. The timing is lousy. We are stimulated to do this before July 1st."

"I agree," Cristo said, "There are three contracts to review. Our labor counsel came up with additional concerns today."

"I think issues have already been discussed," Barton said. "Maybe Craig (Coppola, Chairman of the Personnel Board) doesn't think so."

Officer Richard O'Brien said that negotiations had been done a month ago.

Barton then remarked that the negotiating team agreed to make changes last night and referred to examples such as the use of the word "quit" versus the word "resignation" and the word "discuss" versus "negotiate." This May our body ratified it (contract)."

"Our counsel is telling us not to ratify," Cristo said. "What do you want to do, sign it?"

Barton replied, "We'll send it to our lawyer. What other choice do we have."

"If we can get together before the end of the week," Cristo said, "we could get it signed off before July 1. After that it would be retroactive to July 1."

"I don't see the point of rushing now," O'Brien said. "We can have our lawyer look it over."

Local 495 clerical workers were up next for discussions on the ratification of their contract. Coppola told the board, "They understand the situation; they left."

Highway Department worker Steve Couture told the board that the union representative for the Highway Department employees had also left.

Insurance

At 8:15, the board met with Paul Metzger of C.D. Whitney Agency to review insurance policies to cover liability, property, and building contents for all town property. He first presented the board with a check for $6,390 representing a dividend for the town based upon the low number of claims for workmen's compensation. Metzger commended department heads and town employees for their good record of safety.

Cristo asked Metzger if the Youth Center located in the former Center School building would also be covered. Metzger replied that it was covered and a content value of $80,000 was estimated. Cristo said some savings may result since the contents did not have much value.

Metzger then reviewed a proposal for umbrella coverage for liability beyond the present limit, which would result in an additional $25,000 premium.

Later in the evening, the board approved signing the insurance form, excluding the umbrella proposal.

Housing Partnership

At 8:38, the board met with Housing Partnership Chairman James Fitzpatrick and several committee members. At its last meeting the board decided to ask the members in to explain why they sought approval of a grant to hire a consultant to identify land areas suitable for development of affordable housing.

Before discussing the grant, Fitzpatrick supplied the board with a list of reappointments to the Housing Partnership for the next fiscal year. He said that Rene Morin and Richard Dwinell do not wish to be reappointed and that Todd Miles has asked that his reappointment be held.

Fitzpatrick then referred to a previous grant proposal that was returned since it was too broad in scope. He also explained that his committee subdivided, with one committee looked at existing town owned land, one looking at establishing needs through a system, and another looking at who would be eligible for affordable housing.

The grant's focus would be on parcels of town owned land and some tax title land. Fitzpatrick suggested a parcel located in East Millbury as a possibility. The intent, he said, is to hire a consultant to work with the partnership to find out the suitability of land and its availability. "It may be something small which we can take back to the town meeting next year," he said.

Cristo asked if it might be a single family home. Fitzpatrick said "Yes," and identified parcels in the Oak Pond area, a four acre parcel on Presidential Road off Maplewood, and a 1 1/2 acre parcel off Rogers Street as possible site locations. "The grant will help us to hone in on ones that will have value for recommendations to the next town meeting for approval," Fitzpatrick said.

Todd Miles, a member of the partnership committee, said that large projects are not always acceptable in neighborhoods and that small projects would not raise a lot of controversy. He also said that the proposals would not be of the Great Brook Valley type but would look like any other house so that future projects would be looked at in a better light.

Cristo then asked for a definition of "affordable." Fitzpatrick replied that a $75-$100,000 price range would be an affordable single family home with a maximum 8.4% interest, which, he said, would sell very quickly in Millbury.

Lachance moved to sign the grant application, which was approved unanimously.

Executive Session

At 9:00 p.m., Chief Stokowski asked to meet with the board and Craig Coppola to discuss issues pertaining to collective bargaining and the deployment of security. The board approved 4-1 with Lachance opposed. The session, the second of the evening, lasted for 35 minutes.

Contract

Upon returning to open session. Lachance moved to sign the police contract tonight or on the morning of June 28. Donnelly suggested that the contract not be signed until the board hears from labor counsel or the personnel board.

"We appointed the personnel board which does its job very adequately," Lachance said. "Town counsel has reviewed the contract, tonight we were supposed to sign. Now town counsel comes up with a lot of little things. Why did we have them (representatives) come in tonight? We only knew about this at 7:00 p.m. tonight. This has got to be the most asinine and most ridiculous situation since I have been on the board."

Lachance's motion was defeated on a 3-2 vote, with him and Gauthier in favor and Cristo, Donnelly and Bleau voting against the motion. Bleau then moved that the board sign when mutually acceptable to town counsel, the personnel board, the bargaining unit, and the board of selectmen. The

Aroun' The Town & Golden Agers Update

By Lillian C. Sheehan

We just welcomed the first day of Summer in June, and here we are in the month of July!

The Liberty Bell was rung on July 4, 1776, to announce that the Continental Congress had declared the freedom of the colonies. Still, the Declaration of Independence was not signed until August 2. The crack came in 1834 when the bell was rung to announce a state occasion.

July 15 is St. Swithin's Day. Legend says that if it rains on this day, 40 days of rain will follow; if it is fair, then it will not rain for another forty days.

July 4th is Independence Day - our day to celebrate 53 years.

CENTERVIEW APARTMENTS: Helme is signing up tenants for a trip to the Venus de Milo in Swansea, Mass. on Tuesday, July 18, for a nice lunch, followed by shopping.

A Happy Birthday to Larry Brewer who is celebrating his birthday on July 25th.

COLONIAL APARTMENTS: Happy Birthday to Anna Stone, Rose DeSantis, and Jeanne Peterson, all celebrating in July!

LINDEN APARTMENTS: glad to hear that Edith Army is recuperating from a virus. Happy Birthday to Maurice Landry who is now at Providence House in Millbury and to Louise Mancini at Pearl Street, along with her neighbor, Elizabeth Devoe, who is celebrating her 90th birthday on July 9th. Best wishes to all the above!! Mr. Rivers, formerly a tenant at Linden, is now in Providence House, Millbury.

MILLBURY GOLDEN AGE CLUB: Marcus Dooley, President of Millbury Golden Age Club, has announced that there will not be any meetings during the summer. Meetings will resume the Tuesday after Labor Day.

ST. BRIGID'S WOMEN'S CLUB: Kathy Hackett, newly elected President of St. Brigid's Women's Club, will hold a board meeting at her home on 21 Juniper Drive on Thursday, July 6 at 7 p.m.

Pearson Farm Joins APR Program

BOSTON - Senator John Houston (D-Worcester) and Representative Paul Kollios (D-Millbury) recently congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pearson of 324 West Main Street in Millbury on their entry into the Agricultural Preservation Restriction (APR) program.

The program, under the auspices of the State Department of Food and Agriculture, purchased the development rights to the farm from the Pearsons. The family still owns the land and retains the right to sell it, lease it, or will it to their heirs. The APR restrictions serve to insure that the farm remains in agriculture, and as open space, in perpetuity.

"I am particularly pleased that we were able to preserve this superbly run farm," Houston said. "It is important not only because it is the last working farm in Millbury, but also because the acquisition preserves valuable open space for generations to come."

Kollios praised APR officials for expediting the project, saying, "I appreciate Agriculture Commissioner Gus Schumacher's interest and perseverance in this case. I am delighted that he is working to keep family farmers like the Pearsons on the land. It would have been a shame for them to have had to sell the land to developers."

Houston and Kollios also commended the Town of Millbury and the Conservation Commission for its contribution of $40,000. "This just shows what the State and the towns can do," Houston said, "when they work together to find creative solutions to problems like open space and farm preservation."

Water Conservation Workshop

WORCESTER - A workshop entitled "Conserving Your Liquid Assets" is scheduled for Thursday, July 13, from 8:30 to 1:00 at the Sheraton Worcester Hotel. The workshop is designed to help local businesses and institutions develop strategies to save water. The workshop is being organized by the Massachusetts Audubon Society, The City of Worcester, and the Worcester Area Chamber of Commerce.

Panelists will present case studies about efforts being taken to reduce water use at a variety of facilities including manufacturing firms, hospitals, schools, and office buildings. Participants will receive extensive written materials documenting water conservation programs undertaken at various sites. Representatives from firms which specialize in water conservation services have been invited to exhibit.

The Worcester Office of the Massachusetts Audubon Society is handling registrations for the conference. The cost is $25.00 per person and includes lunch. For more information and a registration form, contact the Massachusetts Audubon Society at 500 Main Street, Worcester. The registration deadline is July 10.

DEADLINE

The deadline for all submissions to the Millbury-Sutton Chronicle is 12:00 noon on Saturday of the week prior to publication.

FERC Studies Alternative Routes for Pipeline Project

On February 17, 1989, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission issued a Notice of Intent to Prepare a Draft Environmental Impact Statement for the Iroquois/Tennessee Pipeline Project and Request for Comments on Its Scope (NOI). Two major alternative routes through New York and Massachusetts will be addressed in the environmental impact statement (EIS).

On January 17, 1989, Iroquois Gas Transmission System (Iroquois) and Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company (Tennessee) filed applications before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC or Commission) for authorization to construct facilities and transport up to 533,900 Mcfd (thousands of cubic feet per day) of Canadian natural gas received from TransCanada PipeLines Limited. The gas would be delivered to local distribution companies (LDCs) and cogeneration customers in New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut. Iroquois would also deliver gas to Tennessee near Wright, New York and Stratford, Connecticut, and to Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) near Brookfield, Connecticut for redelivery to certain LDCs, cogeneration, and power generation customers in Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island.

The staff is presently analyzing an alternative route to the proposed Iroquois route called the Grater Northeast route .1/ This alternative route would deviate from the proposed Iroquois route near Canajoharie, New York and head in an easterly direction to the vicinity of Greenfield, Massachusetts (See Figure 1). From Greenfield, the Greater Northeast route would turn east-southeasterly to Mendon, Massachusetts. All deliveries of natural gas would be made to Tennessee at Mendon.

Figure 1 shows all the facilities needed for this alternative route that are not already being analyzed as part of the Iroquois proposal. These facilities would include approximately 199 miles of new 36-inch-diameter pipeline in New York and Massachusetts. Other facilities not shown for this routing of the Iroquois pipeline include delivery mainlines to Long Island Lighting Company and to Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation. These delivery mainlines would be constructed along the same identical routes as the Iroquois proposal, which was discussed in the February 17, 1989 NOI. The complete alternative will be discussed in the EIS.

The staff's plan to study this routing was announced at the scoping meetings which were held in Albany, New York and Danbury, Connecticut on March 15 and 16, 1989, in conjunction with the Iroquois/Tennessee Pipeline Project. It was also announced in Keene, New Hampshire, Rutland, Vermont and Fitchburg, Massachusetts on March 21, 22, and 23, 1989, in conjunction with the scoping meetings on the Champlain Pipeline Company Project.

Another alternative which the staff will review is similar to the Greater Northeast route except that the 199 miles of new route in New York and Massachusetts would be replaced by a route adjacent to Tennessee's existing pipeline from Wright, New York east across Massachusetts.

Anyone wishing to file comments with the Commission regarding the environmental issues on these alternative routes should do so as soon as possible. Written comments concerning significant issues or concerns related to the alternative routes should contain supporting documentation and rationale. Written comments must be filed by July 24, 1989. The comments should reference Docket No. CP89-634-000, and be addressed to the Secretary, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington D.C. 20426. A copy of the comments should also be sent to Mark Jensen, FERC project manager, Environmental Policy and Project Analysis Branch, office of Pipeline and Producer Regulation, Room 7312, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, telephone (202) 357-9021 or FTS 357-9021. Additional information about the alternatives is available from Jensen. Copies of the scale maps showing the location of the Greater Northeast Alternative Route have been sent to the Selectmen's offices in Millbury and Sutton.

another, qualifications have to be set. The town is no different than a business. If you want to hire a new superintendent or manager, you set criteria for it, and you go out and get the best person for it, and I think for the chief of police, we should work the same way." Chizy said he agreed in part with Licopoli that present officers should be allowed to apply, but he added that the town should invite others to apply as well.

Connor said she agreed with Chizy's remarks, and added that she felt the board could not go to the townspeople and recommend how to appoint a police chief without first having considered the necessary requirements for the position. Although she agreed with LaBonte's proposal to establish criteria for the position, she offered a compromise which would not exclude existing members of the department. "I think they (present members of the force) should be given a shot," Connor said, "but I don't think we can say to the townspeople that our main criteria is being from the town."

LaBonte said he expected that the proposed policy would have some amendments. "I don't have any problems with that," he said. "I feel that anyone working in the (law enforcement) field today, in the past five years, even ten years, has seen the changes coming. I think if you look around at the towns around us that have made recent appointments of police chiefs, there are very few that weren't at the baccalaureate level. I feel strongly that the policy that has been put together (with input from area chiefs of police), that they all feel that the baccalaureate degree is a minimum requirement."

LaBonte said he understood that it may be difficult in a small town not to make some decisions based on personalities. "I always felt that making decisions based on personality is not always in the town's best interest. In fact," he said, "it may never be in the town's best interest. I'm a realist; I looked at Mary K.'s proposal. We've had some discussion. It pretty much leaves the policy intact. I would be less than candid if I said I wouldn't prefer that the policy as proposed go through as proposed, but I can live with some of those proposals that Mary K. is making.

"I hope that we all want the same thing," LaBonte continued, "that is, the very best chief of police that the town can get. That takes nothing away from the people there now; they are all fine men. But I think being a fine man and a fine police officer does not necessarily qualify them to be an excellent chief of police."

Remarking that the law enforcement field is changing, LaBonte said he originally felt the minimum educational standard should be a Master's Degree. "I actually lowered my own standards," he said. "I feel by what salary we pay for this position, we can get an excellent candidate that will meet the years of experience and have a degree that will help protect this town from liability, given the ability to train his people properly on the ever changing laws."

Licopoli suggested that the board establish a screening qualification committee to review applications and make recommendations to Blois, who will appoint the next chief.

Wally Johnson

Johnson made a motion to appoint Sutton's next chief from within the department; the motion was seconded by Licopoli. In a discussion that resulted, Johnson explained that if the proposal was adopted, "we go outside and other people apply and doing that, any member of our department -and I'll state it here - will never stand a chance, would never be given the chance to try to be chief of police in the town of Sutton. You're going to get guys applying with master's degrees and bachelor's degrees and all kinds of degrees," Johnson said. "Instead of guidelines, I want it to come from within. I want it to be known that it's not the same thing."

Connor said she understood what Johnson was saying, "But," she added, "I come from the point that we have to appoint the best person for the job on behalf of the people of the town."

Licopoli then remarked, "I think it's unfortunate the way a man runs his department in town, it's almost impossible to keep it from becoming a political issue. The department head doesn't have the right to make the appointment. If you're in private business, if I wanted to make someone a promotion, I'd just do it," he said. "It doesn't have to go to somebody else. In a small town, all you see is a lot of personal grief, so to speak - a lot of political pressures why this guy got it or why that guy got it. If it was fair, then the recommendation of the appointment should go to the exiting chief. He's the guy who runs the department; he's the guy who knows; he's the guy who keeps the personnel record, and he's the guy who should say who should be the new chief."

The motion to appoint from within the department failed on a 4-1 vote, with Johnson in favor.

From My Window on Farnsworth Court

By "Pastor Rae" Cameron

When I first arrived in Millbury to become the Pastor of the Millbury Baptist Church, I stopped at the parsonage on Miles Street, but the moving van hadn't arrived yet, and no one was there from the church. As I turned around, a neighbor came over to the car and made herself known and invited us for lunch. The lunch was wonderful, but the most wonderful part was she offered up a prayer for us before we left. She was a French-Canadian Catholic lady praying for a Scotch-Canadian Baptist minister. Amen.

The ecumenical movement in Millbury is alive and well. I have greatly enjoyed the fellowship of the Millbury-Sutton Ecumenical Council, the Thanksgiving Service, the Men's Breakfast, and the Church Women United's dinner and service. Every time we get together like this I have a very keen awareness of God the Holy Spirit in our midst.

More recently, a lady from Millbury Baptist Church went home to be with her Lord. Her husband and his family are Roman Catholic so I invited Rev. Maurice Gilbert of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church to assist me in the service. Father "Mo," as he is called with affection, had ministered to the family at the time of her death in the middle of the night. He is a man with a Pastor's heart and we had a wonderful time together in ministering the comforting presence of our God.

Our "thanks" to the many companies who allowed their employees to be in the choir of the Millbury Baptist Church on that mid-week occasion. Under the capable direction of Mr. Charles King, they again did a marvelous presentation of comfort through music. In October, they will be singing a Requiem Mass at Notre Dame Des Canadiens on a Saturday night and then will perform a concert as part of a missionary conference in the Second Baptist Church of Newton Upper Falls on Sunday night.

Jesus prayed "that all of them may be one" (John 17:21) and the Apostle Paul admonished us to "make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace" (Ephesians 4:3). May it be so. Amen.

Playground Complex Planned in Sutton

SUTTON - Over the next 18 months, a community effort to change an idea into a reality is on Sutton's agenda. The idea is a multi-faceted playground complex offering a place for creative play for children and a tastefully landscaped fitness trail with various exercise stations to be enjoyed by all ages. The facility will be located on school grounds and constructed by community volunteers in a fashion similar to the barn-raising days of old.

The project will be funded solely by contributions and fund-raising efforts. Look for upcoming events sponsored by the Sutton Fitness and Playground Committee. For more information, contact Mark DiStefano (865-6826) or Brenda Jenkins (865-4728).

The following Summer Family Concert Series will benefit the project. All concerts will be held on Sundays at 4:00 p.m. in the Sutton Elementary School Amphitheater. In the event of rain, they will be held in the Sutton Elementary School Auditorium.

Another Point of View

By Lawrence Moore

English is dying!

I suppose that statement is a little extreme. What I really mean is that English, as recognized by expert practitioners, is deteriorating.

Of course, there's nothing new about that. If you go back to writing of several centuries ago, you would have difficulty reading English. Through the years, as usage approached what we now call the "classical norm," our comprehension becomes easier.

It seems to me, however, that what was considered wrong a generation ago has become acceptable today.

A split infinitive seems to have become acceptable. It must be so because I have heard a Supreme Court Justice, a highly regarded preacher, and TV anchormen do splitting. Advertising does it - in full page ads. The public press is similarly afflicted, although I must say that Ken Botty's written dedication some time ago to the improvement of the Telegram & Gazette's writing seems to have born fruit.

Dangling participles, faulty use of tenses, subjective and objective confusion, and the general disregard of grammar rules seem to have pervaded our language.

Our problem is further complicated by regionalisms, colloquialisms and malapropisms. Some of them are entertaining, but I must admit I find street, surfer and punk vocabulary incomprehensible.

"You know" has grown in the last generation to be an indispensible part of communication. Its insidious insinuation into the language over the past 20 years makes it a rare conversation in which it is absent. When they say "you know" to me, why do they have to tell me what I already know,...and if I don't "know," why do they tell me I do?

We live in a society where communication has become a major factor in our life, our activity, and our growth. Communication between man and machine, machine and tool, even tool and tool for self correction, has become commonplace. Technologists tell us that we are only on the threshold as far as communication development is concerned.

How sad it is, then, that in basic every day communication, our English has become corrupt. How sad it is that the written and spoken abilities of our students are not nourished and developed to their fullest. How sad it is when we accept "seen" for "saw" and "me" for "I". How sad it is that a book won't sell and a movie won't succeed if it isn't replete with four letter words. How sad it is that Gentlemen and Ladies use words in their social conversation that couldn't appear in print a generation ago.

It's possible that all of this is evolution, but I for one don't call it progress.

Volunteer Class for Children

MILLBURY - The Millbury Public Library, 128 Elm Street, will hold a Volunteer Class on Wednesday, July 12, at 1:30 p.m. for children in grades three and up who are interested in volunteering in the Children's Room at the library. Children taking this class will learn the rudiments of checking materials in and out at the circulation desk, shelving books, and shelf reading. Once they have completed the course, the children will have an opportunity to get involved with assisting in creating a giant size calendar, story hour preparations, and holiday decorations. For more information, or to register, call 865-1181.

Volunteers Provide Assistance to Families Caring for Elders

WORCESTER - The Age Center of Worcester Area, Inc., 51 Harvard Street, is offering respite services for those who care for homebound elders. The Respite Coordinator of the age Center recruits, trains and directs volunteers who provide supervision and companionship for an elderly person who cannot be left unattended.

The respite care worker makes it possible for a care giver to leave home for several hours, knowing that his/her relative is being safely cared for. Respite care workers may serve a light snack but are not expected to do personal care or homemaking tasks. Caregivers are charged an hourly rate based on a sliding scale fee. Anyone providing constant care for an elderly person is eligible to use the Respite Care Service. For further information, contact Helen Sumpter at 755-4388.

Millbury Arts and Crafts Program

MILLBURY - The Millbury Arts and Crafts program will begin on July 10 and run through August 18. The program is open to all children ages 6 to 12 and will be held at Windle Field from 8:30 a.m. to noon.

Sign Announcements

Any non-profit organization that would like an announcement placed on the Lion's Club sign in the center of town is asked to send the information a month in advance to: Sign, 32 Sullivan Place, Millbury, MA 01527.

Flea Market and Bake Sale

SUTTON - The Sutton Historical Society will hold its annual Flea Market and Bake Sale at the Sherman Blacksmith Shop, Sutton Center, on Saturday, July 8, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Space is available for $10. Call 476-7900. Items by the blacksmith will also be on sale.

As part of this year's event, the society will be selling shingles at $2.00 each to help defray the cost of repairing the roof on the Blacksmith shop. Benefactors will be able to inscribe their names on a shingle so future Suttonians will have a record of those who contributed to the shop's restoration. All are invited to help preserve this valuable piece of the past.

Under Old Business:

- 15 members of the Housing Partnership Committee were reappointed.
- Frank Piscitelli was appointed as a representative for the Board of Health to the Resource Recovery Advisory Committee as well as present members who were reappointed.
- Jeff Dore was reappointed to the Blackstone River Advisory Council.

The appointment of Carl Ferraco as aide to the Building Inspector was held as Gauthier said he wished to consider Ferraco for the position of Building Inspector.

Gauthier then moved not to reappoint Rene Morin to the position. Lachance seconded the motion for discussion purposes. He said that he had a feeling not to appoint, saying errors had been committed. He also said that due process was a factor and that the board had never called Morin in. "Not to reappoint him tonight would not be proper," Lachance said.

Gauthier cited instances during election time when signs were posted on public property. He said the building inspector drove by them everyday and did nothing. "I have nothing personal against him," Gauthier said. "We sit here, we moan, and then reappoint people. We can't keep doing that."

Bleau suggested that Morin be called in to discuss the new checklist program and that no one else be appointed. Donnelly said he was ready to vote and moved that Rene Morin be reappointed. The vote was 3-1-1 with Morin reappointed. Gauthier voted against the reappointment and Bleau abstained. Donnelly then moved to reappoint Morin as Zoning Agent and Fence Viewer, which was approved on the same 3-1-1 vote.

Donnelly moved to reappoint Carl Ferraco as aide to the building inspector, which was approved on a 5-0 vote.

De-Weeding of Dorothy Pond

Chase told the board that, according to Jeff Gardner, the Dorothy Pond Restoration Committee was not planning on treating the weeds at the pond. Chase said Gardner feels the problem is beginning to subside as the weeds appear to be dying back. Cristo disagreed, noting he had received many complaints. He reminded his colleagues that the board had voted to support treatment to kill the weeds.

Cristo also cited an instance where he went out with a boat to rescue baby ducks which were caught in the weeds. Chase said Gardner told him he had gone out and looked at the pond.

Cristo said that Gardner was not on the same pond as he was and that he (Gardner) should take all the phone calls complaining about the weeds. "We voted to spend the money," Cristo said, adding that it never went out to bid.

Millbury Ave. Reconstruction Project

Chase reported that the drainage system is complete at the Millbury Avenue Reconstruction Project. He also noted that calcium chloride is being used to keep the dust down in response to complaints from residents on that section of Millbury Avenue.

Water Study Committee

Donnelly reported that the Water Study Committee is ready to discuss with the board negotiations for the purchase of Mass. American Water Company. He said a price has been considered by the company. Cristo noted that negotiations would be a subject for executive session since the issue deals with the purchase of real property.

Center School

Bleau asked about the liability relating to school department storage at the Center School after July 1 when the building comes under the jurisdiction of the selectmen. Chase said that the school department expects to have some time to remove what is stored.

Gauthier asked Chase to determine the status of the playground equipment at the school since it would not be used by the Youth Center. He said it could be put to use by the Parks Department.

New Business

Under New Business, the board:

1. approved street opening permits for 18 different locations as requested by Commonwealth Gas.
2. approved Bicycle Club Time Trials sponsored by Gordon Clark for Thursday evenings.
3. held a request for a street light on Upton Street for further study.

Letter of Protest

The board unanimously approved a motion by Lachance to send a letter to President George Bush protesting the recent Supreme Court ruling that extended freedom of speech protection to people who burn the flag as a form of political protest.

Sidewalks

Donnelly brought up a concern relating to the condition of sidewalks on Maple and West Main Streets. Gauthier said the sidewalk on Maple Street is slated for restoration this year. Donnelly said that the mills on West Main Street should be sent a letter suggesting that they rebuild the sidewalks that no longer exist due to heavy trucks driving over them.

Summer Reading...

This list has been compiled for general readers by librarians who work with adults. The titles have been selected by the Notable Book Council, American Library Association Reference and Adult Services Division, for their significant contribution to the expansion of knowledge or for the pleasure they can provide to adult readers. Criteria include wide general appeal and literary merit. All books on this list are available at the Millbury Public Library.

FICTION

EVA LUNA by Isabel Allende - Eva Luna travels the distance from illiteracy to telenovelist and learns along the way that her strength lies in being able to choose the meaning of her own story.

LIBRA by Don DeLillo - In a fascinating reconstruction of what was and what might have been, DeLillo delves into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the mind of Lee Harvey Oswald.

TRACKS by Louise Erdrich - An eloquent novel dealing with the effect of disintegrating tribal life on a group of North Dakota Indians in the early decades of the 20th century.

LOVE IN THE TIME OF CHOLERA by Gabriel Marquez Garcia - The isolation, vulnerability, and daily frustrations of a deaf and blind young poet are insightfully portrayed through his struggle to function within a "normal" society.

THE FIFTH CHILD by Doris Lessing - A tale of violence and chaos made manifest in a brutish animal child and his profoundly conflicted mother who can neither nourish him nor deny him life.

MAMA DAY by Gloria Naylor - Straddling the real world of New York City and an imaginary island off the South Atlantic coast, Naylor's story creates unforgettable characters caught in a web of love and violence.

WHEAT THAT SPRINGETH GREEN by J.F. Powers - A witty and literate book about the life of Father Joe Hackett, a priest who makes a mature but not altogether successful accommodation to his youthful idealism.

FAIR AND TENDER LADIES by Lee Smith - An epistolary novel that chronicles several decades in the life of Ivy Rowe, a poor, hardworking woman and born storyteller from the mountains of Virginia.

BREATHING LESSONS by Anne Tyler - A funny, perceptive exploration of family relationships, this novel depicts one day in the lives of middle class, middle-aged Maggie and Ira Moran.

NONFICTION

BATTLE CRY OF FREEDOM: THE CIVIL WAR ERA by James M. McPherson - A masterful and matchless history of the dissolution of the Union and the War itself sheds new light on the meaning of slavery and freedom. (973.7 MAC)

FEAR NO EVIL by Nathan Sharansky - A leading Soviet dissident and Jewish activist recounts with warmth, intelligence, and humor his nine harrowing years in KGB custody. (B Sharansky)

CAPOTE: A BIOGRAPHY by Gerald Clarke - This is the frank and definitive biography about one of the most colorful, controversial figures in the history of letters. (B CAPOTE)

A TURN IN THE SOUTH by V.S. Naipaul - Here's a unique and startlingly clear view of the South from one of today's most perceptive writers. (975.04 NAI)

THE POWER GAME by Hedrick Smith - There's a new set of rules and new players playing them in our nation's capital. Smith reveals the Capital Hill power games and how they are being played. (320.973 SMI)

ESCALANTE: THE BEST TEACHER IN AMERICA by Jay Mathews - An inspiring book about a man who did not let poverty or neglect stand in his way of seeing the potential of the students at Garfield High in the barrio of East Los Angeles. (B ESCALANTE)

FIRST SALUTE: A VIEW OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION by Barbara Tuchman - Tuchman takes a fresh look at the American Revolution from its beginnings to its resolve and how the birth of our nation set the pace for the emerging modern world. (973.3 TUC)

RIDING THE RED ROOSTER BY TRAIN THROUGH CHINA by Paul Theroux - With insight and eloquence, Theroux chronicles his trip through China from the Mongolian border to Hong Kong to the South, and Urumchia to the west and Manchuria's Langxiang to the east. (915.1 THE)

COMING UP AT THE LIBRARY

FILM: STAR WARS, Tuesday, July 11, at 5:30. Bring your brown bag supper and we will provide the refreshments and entertainment.

VOLUNTEER CLASS, Wednesday, July 12, at 1:30. Kids in grades three and up who are interested in volunteering in the Children's Room are invited to attend this class. Only participants completing our volunteer class will qualify to volunteer in the room during the school year. Register by calling 865-1181.

EIGHTH ANNUAL STUFFED ANIMAL CONTEST, Thursday, July 13. Summer wouldn't be complete without this annual event. So, be creative and bring your favorite stuffed animal pal to the library to join in the fun. Register by calling 865-1181.

LIBRARY HOURS: Tuesday through Thursday, 10-8; Friday, 10-6; Saturday, 10-1.

Chicken Barbecue

UXBRIDGE - The Committee to Re-Elect Representative Richard T. Moore (D-Uxbridge) will sponsor its 13th annual Chicken Barbecue on Sunday, July 16, beginning at 1:00 p.m. at Patricks Pavilion in Uxbridge. The barbecue will feature music by the Emeralds.

Moore, who is serving his seventh term in the Massachusetts House of Representatives, is currently a member of the Committees on Ways and Means, House Rules, and Public Safety, and the Special Commissions on Infrastructure Finance and Tax Reform.

Tickets can be obtained locally by contacting one of the following ticket committee members from Sutton: Rick LaBonte, Sten Brote and William Guertin.

Looking for Models

BOSTON - Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries is looking for volunteers to model vintage clothing in its "Styles Through The Years" Antique Fashion Show. Presented to area church and civic groups, the show raises awareness about the work of Goodwill. No prior modeling experience is necessary, though models should have a small dress size and provide their own transportation. For more information, contact Volunteer Coordinator Janine McLaren at 617-445-1010, extension 257.

The board then discussed the qualifications and voted 4-1, with Johnson opposed, to approve them. The following is the agreed upon minimum qualifications: a Bachelor's degree in law enforcement, law, or a criminal justice related field (The exception proposed by Connor, and accepted, will allow a current member of the Sutton department who meets all of the other requirements except the degree to apply for the position. If appointed, the individual must enroll in a degree program and take 3 courses a year.); five years of criminal justice experience in the Massachusetts Criminal Justice System, two years of which will be as a police officer and at least two years of administrative experience; ability to formulate policies and procedures for the orderly operation of the department; ability to coordinate, lead and conduct training programs; and a demonstrated understanding of the judicial system and familiarity with court decisions which affect the actions of police officers in the performance of their duties. In addition, the board discussed a residency requirement and agreed to requiring residency within the town within 18 months of appointment.

The board must vote again on the policy for final approval.

Science Center Offering Classes

WORCESTER - The following educational programs will be offered by the New England Science Center, 222 Harrington Way. For reservations, call 791-9211.

SUNDAY, JULY 16: BREAKFAST WITH BEARS, 9 a.m.-11 a.m., ages 8 through adult. This program takes visitors behind the scenes at the New England Science Center to show how animals and their keepers start their day. Participants will learn about the special diets different animals need and how this food is prepared. This program includes a tour of the zoo to learn how the animals are cared for. All children must be accompanied by an adult. Cost is $18 for members (includes one adult and one child), and $23 for non-member adult and child.

SATURDAY, JULY 29: GRAVITY, 1-3 p.m., Ages 6-8. Students learn all about gravity, the force of nature discovered by Isaac Newton. Why does the earth move around the sun? Why does a ball come back when you throw it into the air? These questions and more will be answered as Isaac Newton's concept of gravity is discussed. Newton's concept has left a lot of people floating, but this program will answer any questions that participants may have. Cost is $14 for members and $16 for non-members.

Star Wars

MILLBURY - The Millbury Public Library, 128 Elm Street, will present the feature film STAR WARS on Tuesday, July 11, at 5:30 p.m. STAR WARS is the first in George Lucas' ever popular "Star Wars Series." Meet Hans Solo, Princess Leia, and Luke Skywalker in their fight between good and evil in the outer reaches of the galaxy. This is a "bring your own bag" supper event. Refreshments will be included.

All Music Worship Service

SUTTON - On July 16, the 9:30 a.m. Sunday Morning Worship Service at the West Sutton Baptist Church, Central Turnpike, will be all musical. Among the featured guests/musicians will be Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith from the Rhode Island Symphony and Mrs. Joyce Waltrous, pianist from Mystic Connecticut. Refreshments will be served in the community hall following the worship service. For more information, call Ruth Stafinski at 865-6821.

Summer Benefit Concerts

WORCESTER - The Worcester Committee on Homelessness and Housing Inc. has announced a series of summer benefit concerts for Worcester Housing Now, the local committee of a nation-wide coalition organizing an October 7th rally in Washington, D.C. The rally is planned to focus national attention on the need to restore a national commitment to housing.

Local musicians will be donating their talents throughout the summer to help Worcester Housing Now send Worcester area homeless people to represent themselves in Washington on October 7. Bands will appear at locations throughout the city. All concerts are free. Donations will be solicited during the concerts. All proceeds will go to Housing Now for bus fare for homeless representatives to the Washington rally.

The Lydia Fortune Jazz Quartet will lead off the series on Saturday, July 8, at 8:00 p.m. at the Atwood Gallery, 69A Hammond Street.

Outdoor Concert

SUTTON - On July 15, the West Sutton Baptist Church, Central Turnpike, will hold its 3rd outdoor concert of the season at 7:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served from 6:00 p.m. In the event of rain, the concert will be held indoors.

Featured at the concert will be "A Night of Dance." Several square dancing groups will perform, including the Bay Path Promenaders, the Rovers, and the Sutton Square Dancers.

What's the Difference?

By Pat O'Leary & Larry Ham

HOW TO PLAY: The answers to the two clues rhyme and the beginning consonant sounds are switched. For example: What's the difference between a neckwear fastener and a metal pan for baked desserts? One is a TIE PIN and the other is a PIE TIN. Sound counts, not spelling.

1. An untamed man and a gentle howl?
A _____ and a _____

2. A seaman's cravats and a clothes mender's suspirations?
A _____ and a _____

3. Loaning aural organs and stopping lascivious looks?
_____ and _____

4. "Milk" of magnesia and a joyful consecration?
_____ and _____

ANSWERS: 1. A wild male and a mild wail. 2. A sailor's ties and a tailor's sighs. 3. Lending ears and ending leers. 4. Dairy medication and merry dedication.

Sewerage Treatment Waste

Bleau suggested that waste from the sewerage treatment plant be brought to the landfill prior to capping. Chase will contact the Board of Health and the sewerage commission about the feasibility of the suggestion.

Correspondence

The board received a copy of a letter from town counsel Kopelman and Paige to Attorney Peter Keenan, representing Spiro Notidis et al. The letter was confirming a phone conversation in which Keenan said that his client Spiro Notidis and Paul LeBouef would take action to bring property Notidis owns at 2-4 Sutton Road into compliance with the Millbury Zoning By-law. Attached to the letter was an agreement which town counsel asked to have signed and returned.

According to the agreement, on or before June 23, Notidis would agree to serve on the tenant(s) in the third floor apartment a Notice to Quit the Premises within thirty days. If the tenant(s) has not vacated within thirty days, Notidis would commence a suit to evict the tenant on or before July 24, 1989.

Notidis would also require tenant Paul LeBouef to immediately refrain from parking his mobile home within ten feet of any street and to refrain from renting the vehicle from the premises.

Notidis would also refrain from using the premises in any way which violates the Millbury Zoning By-law, including but not limited to, ceasing all use of the third floor apartment as a residence and taking all legal actions to stop tenant LeBouef from parking his mobile home within ten feet of a street or operation of a mobile home rental business on the premises.

The agreement also calls for LeBouef to immediately refrain from parking his mobile home within ten feet of a street and immediately refrain from renting the vehicle from the premises. He would also agree to refrain from using the premises in any way which violated by By-law, including but not limited to ceasing parking of his mobile home within ten feet of a street and operation of mobile home rental business on the premises.

In turn, the Town would agree not to seek fines which may be due up to this date as a result of the illegal apartment, the illegal parking of the mobile home, and the illegal operation of a business on the premises in a residential district provided that Notidis and LeBouef comply with the terms of the agreement.

A letter from Planning Board Chairwoman Anna Lewandowski was also read in response to a public vote taken by the board several weeks ago supporting the need for a major supermarket in Millbury. The letter read as follows:

"The Planning Board wishes to thank the Board of Selectmen for their concern in retaining a major supermarket in Millbury. However, since we are in litigation, addressing this situation now and having your concerns made public is poorly timed.

"Public hearings were held at which time any input from the Selectmen would have been most welcome. Most of the Planning Board members shop at the local supermarket and are aware of what the situation is. There are times when many things are deemed unacceptable, or in this case inconvenient, but the Planning Board , after much consideration, felt that the welfare of the majority of the townspeople took precedence over the convenience of a few.

"All of this was taken into consideration when a decision was rendered in what we believe was in the best interest of the town. If any of the Selectmen care to peruse the information available that led to the Board's decision, please feel free to do so at the Planning Office. In the meantime, we would welcome any effort on your part should anything come up to change the situation."

The board also received a copy of a letter from Town Counsel to the Millbury Zoning Board of Appeals regarding the Bengston Lane comprehensive permit. According to the letter, both the Bengston Lane estates principals and the Millbury Zoning Board of Appeals have been asked to submit legal briefs that will be due 30 days after a copy of the final transcript of testimony at the hearings is completed.

The board moved to adjourn at 11:35 p.m.

Age Center Seeking Volunteers

WORCESTER - The Age Center of Worcester Area, Inc. is seeking volunteers to be friendly visitors and senior companions. Friendly visitors give a minimum of one hour a week to visit an isolated older person. Visitors establish a friendly relationship with their clients and provide companionship that those with limited access to the community miss. The volunteer may accompany the older person on walks, to movies or meals, or to any activity that aids with reentry into community activities.

Senior companions give 20 hours a week assisting those age 60 and over to remain in their homes by providing companionship and assistance. No housekeeping or personal care is expected. All volunteers receive training, orientation and supervision. Senior companions receive a small stipend that is tax free. For information, contact the Age Center at 755-4388.

Referral Specialist

CENTURY 21 King & King in Sutton has been REdesignated a "VIP Referral" Specialist. The designation is awarded for a two-year period and identifies expertise, experience and commitment to the professional handling of referral business.

In order to qualify, the broker/manager must have completed the CENTURY 21 Management Development Course and must have a designated Relocation Director who has completed two required courses of study in the CENTURY 21 CareerTrak training: VIP Sales Associate and VIP Relocation Director.

The VIP designated office is among those identified throughout the CENTURY 21 system as capable of servicing corporate transferees and is a member of the CENTURY 21 Corporate Relocation Network. The firm handles all aspects of the relocation process from a single point of contact.

One angry sign leads to another, and soon the two opposing base coaches are embroiled in a heated exchange.

EVERYTHING YOU DIDN'T WANT TO KNOW ABOUT AIDS. BUT SHOULD.

To start with, you don't have to be gay or a drug user to get it. AIDS has hit these two groups hardest because the AIDS virus hit them first, before anyone knew why or how people should protect themselves from it.

And the virus is spreading. Scientists report that about one and a half million people are already infected.

You can't tell who has it and who doesn't. Most people who have the AIDS virus don't even know it. They don't look or feel sick. It can take up to ten years for symptoms to show up. So people who seem perfectly healthy can pass the virus on to others.

HOW IS IT PASSED ON? One way is shooting up drugs with someone who's infected and sharing the needle. But most people catch the AIDS virus THROUGH SEX. A woman can catch it from a man. A man can catch it from a woman. A man can catch it from a man.

Obviously, the surest way to avoid the virus is to avoid sex. If you do have sex, YOUR BEST PROTECTION IS A LATEX CONDOM with spermicide. Use them every time, from start to finish, according to the manufacturers' directions.

You can ignore these precautions only if you and your partner have been together for at least 10 years, and both of you have been totally faithful.

Otherwise, DON'T MAKE ANY EXCEPTIONS.

Because the one time you do can be the one time you shouldn't have.
